PRAYER OF THE DAY

P Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. By your merciful protection awaken us to the threatening dangers of our sins, and keep us blameless until the coming of your new day, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 64:1-9

This lament comes from a people who have had their hopes shattered. The visions of a rebuilt Jerusalem and a renewed people of God, spoken of in Isaiah 40–55, have not been realized. Instead, the people experience ruin, conflict, and famine. This lament calls God to account—to be the God who has brought deliverance in the past.

- <sup>1</sup>O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence—<sup>2</sup>as when fire kindles brushwood
and the fire causes water to boil—
to make your name known to your adversaries,
so that the nations might tremble at your presence!
<sup>3</sup>When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect,
you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence.
<sup>4</sup>From ages past no one has heard,
no ear has perceived,
no eye has seen any God besides you,
who works for those who wait for him.
<sup>5</sup>You meet those who gladly do right,
those who remember you in your ways.
But you were angry, and we sinned;
because you hid yourself we transgressed.
<sup>6</sup>We have all become like one who is unclean,
and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth.
We all fade like a leaf,
and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.
<sup>7</sup>There is no one who calls on your name,
or attempts to take hold of you;
for you have hidden your face from us,

and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity.

<sup>8</sup>Yet, O Lord, you are our Father;
we are the clay, and you are our potter;
we are all the work of your hand.

<sup>9</sup>Do not be exceedingly angry, O Lord,
and do not remember iniquity forever.
Now consider, we are all your people.

PSALM: Psalm 80:1-7, 17-19

R Let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved. (Ps. 80:7)

shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim.

stir up your strength and come to help us.

<sup>3</sup>Restore us, O God;
let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved.

<sup>4</sup>O Lord God of hosts,
how long will your anger fume when your people pray? *R

<sup>5</sup>You have fed them with the bread of tears;
you have given them bowls of tears to drink.

<sup>6</sup>You have made us the derision of our neighbors,
and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

<sup>7</sup>Restore us, O God of hosts;
let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved.

<sup>17</sup>Let your hand be upon the one at your right hand,
the one you have made so strong <sup>f</sup>or yourself. *R

<sup>18</sup>And so will we never turn away from you;
give us life, that we may call upon your name.

<sup>19</sup>Restore us, O Lord God of hosts;
let your face shine upon us, and we shall be saved. *R

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 1:3-9

As the Christians in Corinth await the advent of Jesus, Paul reminds them how the Lord has already enriched them through spiritual gifts and will continue to strengthen them until the coming day of the Lord.

<sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, <sup>5</sup>for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind—<sup>6</sup>just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you—<sup>7</sup>so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>8</sup>He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

GOSPEL: Mark 13:24-37

Jesus encourages his followers to look forward to the day when he returns in power and glory to end all suffering.

[Jesus said:] <sup>24</sup>“In those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, <sup>25</sup>and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

<sup>26</sup>Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in clouds’ with great power and glory. <sup>27</sup>Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

<sup>28</sup>“From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>29</sup>So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. <sup>30</sup>Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. <sup>31</sup>Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

<sup>32</sup>“But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. <sup>33</sup>Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. <sup>34</sup>It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. <sup>35</sup>Therefore, keep awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, <sup>36</sup>or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. <sup>37</sup>And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.”

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

P With hope and expectation, we offer our prayers for the church, the world, and all who await God’s day of restoration.

A brief silence.

A Call your church into holy fellowship as we await the restoration of all things. Reenergize your faithful people to live with hope and compassion, especially those who serve as missionaries near and far. Center us on your promise to come among us and make all things new. Merciful God,

C Receive our prayer.

A All creation signals your presence, O God: the vastness of the cosmos, the turn of the seasons, and living things that both rest and flourish.

Rekindle our commitment to care for the earth. Merciful God,

C Receive our prayer.

A Let the nations tremble at your holy presence, that justice and liberation prevail in all corners of the earth. Restore peace to nations in conflict, teach righteousness to corrupt leaders and systems, and bring stability to areas facing uncertain futures. Merciful God,

C Receive our prayer.

A Enrich the spirits of all who feel hopeless, fearful, or despairing. Stay close to those who await healing or relief (especially). Deliver all in any need. Merciful God,

C Receive our prayer.

A Be with those who keep awake at night: nurses working overnight shifts, caregivers of newborns and aging adults, stargazers, those who are anxious, or those who are traveling. Reveal to all that the dark can be a place of calm and comfort filled with your presence. Merciful God,

C Receive our prayer.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

A You have sent out your angels and gathered your faithful people from every time and place, calling them into one fellowship of saints. Bless the witness of those who dwell in your eternal presence (especially Francis Xavier, whom we commemorate today). Merciful God,

C Receive our prayer.

Listen to these and all our prayers, O God of hosts, and restore us with your great and everlasting mercy.

C Amen.
